

Personal Impact

"CGF Retreats are where all college golfers can come learn about Jesus in a safe environment and connect with peers in an atypical setting. They're ridiculously fun!"

- Cameron Tringale
PGA Tour Player

"By opening my home to these college golfers and serving them, I was impacted just as much as they were, if not more."

- Davis Love III
PGA Champion

"I wish I knew about CGF sooner because this was truly a life-changing experience. Our week was full of hearing one of the best speakers in the country talk about the truth of the Bible and how it relates to our lives."

- Kyle Moore
Northwestern Golfer

COLLEGE GOLF FELLOWSHIP

OUR ACTIVITIES

Outreach Banquets

At college tournaments, participating players and coaches hear a personal testimony from a PGA Tour Player. Then a CGF staff member provides an opportunity for those in attendance to respond to the Gospel of Jesus.

Bible Studies

CGF staff lead local, weekly Bible Studies with college golfers in their home regions, as well as studies at tournament sites.

Team Visits

CGF staff spend time developing relationships and encouraging spiritual growth with players and coaches at tournament sites and on college campuses.

Individual Counseling

Players seek out CGF staff to help them resolve questions from family relationships, personal ethics, and career planning, according to Biblical principals.

Discipleship

CGF staff mentor individual players and coaches, challenging and equipping them to grow deeper in the relationships with Christ.

Retreats

Summer and winter retreats allow players and coaches a chance to relax, hear solid Bible teaching, and find out what a true Christian life is all about.

CGF exists to make disciples by investing relationally with the Gospel of Jesus Christ throughout the world of college golf.

CGF exists to meet a need that is not being met by any other organization. In fact, CGF is the only Christian ministry with the specific purpose of building into the lives of college golfers, sharing the hope of Christ with them, and discipling those who have placed their trust in Him.
